RAIDERS GAME NOTES

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 5 VS PORTLAND

RAIDER REVIEW: The Prince Albert Raiders (2-2-0-0) will try to win back-to-back games for the first time this season when the Portland Winterhawks (3-2-0-0) visit the Art Hauser Centre on Wednesday night. On Sunday, the Raiders scored four unanswered goals to beat the visiting Edmonton Oil Kings 5-2. Sean Montgomery scored twice in the second period to spark the comeback. Rylan Parenteau made his first start of the season, stopping 33 of the 35 shots he faced.

VS. PORTLAND: Tonight is the Raiders' only game against the Winterhawks this season. Last year, Rylan Parenteau made 36 saves to guide the Raiders to a 4-0 shutout of the Winterhawks in Portland.

BORN IN THE USA: The Raiders welcome the U.S. Division to Prince Albert this season for its biennial road trip through the East Division. Last year, the Raiders travelled through the northwest United States and finished with a 3-1-0-1 record, picking up wins over the Winterhawks, Tri-City Americans and Spokane Chiefs.

SCORCHING START: Simon Stransky and Austin Glover continued their hot start to the season. Both players assisted on Sean Montgomery's first goal on Sunday evening. Stransky and Glover have recorded at least a point in every game the Raiders have played this season. Stransky leads the team with eight points, while Glover is right behind with seven.

SECONDARY SCORING: The Raiders received some offensive help during Sunday evening's game against the Oil Kings. Four different Raiders – Parker Kelly, Sean Montgomery, Zack Andrusiak and Tim Vanstone – scored their first goals of the season. Prior to the game, Simon Stransky (3), Austin Glover (3) and Kolten Olynek (2) accounted for all eight of the Raiders' goals in the first three games.

FIRST!: Three Raiders recorded milestones during Sunday evening's game against Edmonton. Zack Andrusiak scored his first WHL goal when he beat Patrick Dea at the 1:22 mark of the third period. Lane Kirk picked up his first WHL point when he assisted on Sean Montgomery's game-winning goal at the 5:50 mark of the second. Cameron Reagan picked up his first two points as a Raider by assisting on Andrusiak and Tim Vanstone's third period goals.

ROSTER NEWS: Prior to Sunday's game, the Raiders dealt 1997-born defenceman Brennan Riddle to the Lethbridge Hurricanes in exchange for a pick in the 2018 WHL Bantam Draft. Riddle suited up in 111 games for the Raiders, contributing 10 assists and 76 penalty minutes. The Raiders also released 1996-born forward Kolten Olynek.

RANKED: Goaltender Ian Scott and winger Simon Stransky were named to the NHL Central Scouting Preliminary list on Tuesday morning. Scott, 17, has a 1-2-0-0 record this season with a 3.37 goals-against average and a 0.919 save percentage. Stransky, 18, has eight points in four games so far this season.

NEXT UP: The Raiders are back at it on Thursday night when they head to Saskatoon for a game against the Blades. Puck drop at the SaskTel Centre is set for 7:05 p.m. The next Raiders' home game is Saturday, Oct. 15 against the defending WHL champion Brandon Wheat Kings. HAWKS NEWS

GLASS, JOKIHARJU ON ONES TO WATCH LIST: NHL Central Scouting released its preliminary Players to Watch list Tuesday, and defenseman Henri Jokiharju and Cody Glass each made the list. Jokiharju received a 'B' rating, while Glass received a 'C' rating.

PORTLAND WINTERHAWKS
GAME NOTES

The players to watch list is Central Scouting's compilation of top prospects from all the major development leagues throughout North America and Europe. The list is updated throughout the season as scouts travel to see the players live.

The 29 players on the list with "A" ratings are considered potential first-round picks. Players with "B" ratings are considered possible second- or third-round choices, and those with "C" ratings are potential fourth-, fifth- or sixth-round selections.

IVERSON NAMED HAWKS' NEW CAPTAIN: Winterhawks Vice President, General Manager & Head Coach Mike Johnston has announced that Keegan Iverson has been named the team's captain. Iverson made his season debut on September 30 after missing opening weekend while in training camp with the NHL's Minnesota Wild.

Along with naming Iverson captain, the Winterhawks have also named their alternate captains: Caleb Jones, Keoni Texeira and Colton Veloso.

Iverson becomes the 41st captain in team history, joining such players as Nic Petan, Braydon Coburn, Adam Deadmarsh, Paul Gaustad, Brenden Morrow and Brent Peterson. He takes over the captain's position from Dominic Turgeon, who will play in the Detroit Red Wings' system this season.

HEADING EAST: The Hawks began their six-game road trip through the WHL's East Division last night in Swift Current. After tonight's game in Prince Albert, they'll continue to Moose Jaw, Saskatoon, Brandon and Regina. On the way back from Saskatchewan, they'll stop for a game in Spokane on October 15. After tonight, the team's next home game won't be until October 18 against Tri-Cities.

MIKE JOHNSTON RETURNS: The Hawks' biggest acquisition over the offseason came off the ice, when Mike Johnston returned to the Winterhawks as the team's Vice President, General Manager & Head Coach.

Johnston originally joined the Winterhawks in that role in October 2008 and remained through the 2013-14 season, amassing a record of 231-114-10-10. His 231 wins are second in team history, while his winning percentage of. 660 is highest in team history among coaches with at least a full season at the helm. The Winterhawks made four straight trips to the WHL Final from 2011 through 2014, winning the 2013 championship.

During Johnston's first tenure in Portland, 24 Winterhawks players were selected in the NHL Draft, including six players selected in the first round: Ryan Johansen, Nino Niederreiter, Sven Baertschi, Joe Morrow, Derrick Pouliot and Seth Jones. During the 2015-16 NHL season, 25 Winterhawks alumni suited up in the NHL, including 16 who played under Johnston in Portland.

OLIVER DAVID JOINS STAFF: One of Johnston's moves over the summer was hiring Oliver David as Assistant Coach, who will join Johnston and Associate Coach Kyle Gustafson behind the bench.

David comes to the Winterhawks after three seasons with the Dubuque Fighting Saints of the United States Hockey League, where he was Associate Head Coach & Assistant General Manager. In David's three seasons in Dubuque they went 108-61-2-9, with a trip to last season's championship series and back-to-back appearances in the conference final in 2014 and 2015.

David joined the Fighting Saints in 2013 after four seasons as head coach of the Kenai River Brown Bears of the North American Hockey League. During his tenure the club went 87-74-17 and advanced approximately 10 players per year to the NCAA, one of the league's top marks. He also spent 2005-09 coaching youth programs in California.

IMPORT ADDITIONS: The Portland Winterhawks made two selections in the 2016 CHL Import Draft in June, taking Finnish defenseman Henri Jokiharju in the first round and Danish forward Joachim Blichfeld, a San Jose Sharks draft pick, in the second round.

Jokiharju had nine goals and 20 assists for 29 points in 47 games playing as a 16-year-old with the Tappara U20 team in Finland's Junior A league last season. In addition, he helped Finland win a gold medal at the World Under-18 Championship this year, as he registered three assists in seven games in the tournament. He also represented Finland at the 2015 World Under-17 Championship, where he had a goal in five games. Jokiharju is eligible for the 2017 NHL Draft.

Blichfeld was selected in the seventh round of the 2016 NHL Draft by the San Jose Sharks. He played last season in Sweden as a 17-year-old for Malmo's J20 team in the SuperElit League, where he had 15 goals and 13 assists for 28 points in 45 games. Blichfeld also played in the World Under-18 Championship, totaling four goals and two assists for six points in seven games with his native Denmark.
