RAIDERS GAME NOTES

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24 VS. REGINA

RAIDER REVIEW: Simon Stransky found the back of the net in overtime to lift the Raiders to a 4-3 win over the Regina Pats on Friday night in Regina. It was Stransky's second goal of the game, completing a three-point night for the '97-born import winger. Ian Scott was sensational in net for the Raiders, making 42 saves – including 15 in the first period – to earn the Raiders' first win of the 2016-17 season.

CLOSE GAMES: The Raiders and Pats have proven to be evenly-matched teams dating back to last season. Including last night's 4-3 overtime game, eight of the last nine meetings have been decided by two goals or less. Five of those games were one-goal games, with four being decided in overtime.

DEFENDING HOME ICE: The Raiders were a strong team when they took to the ice of the Art Hauser Centre, winning 23 of their 36 contests played in Hockey Town North during the 2015-16 season. Included in that record were three home wins against the Pats.

SIGN ON THE DOTTED LINE: On Friday, the Raiders announced the signing of 1998-born forward Zack Andrusiak. A product of Yorkton, Andrusiak was an invitee to this year's training camp that earned a contract with his play. He dressed in all five of the Raiders' preseason contests, picking up a goal and two assists. Last season, he played in the KIJHL, scoring 32 goals and chipping in 19 assists in 32 league games.

MAKING THEIR DEBUTS: Lane Kirk and Cody Thompson -- both rookie Raiders defencemen -- made their WHL debuts on Friday night in Regina. Kirk finished with a plus-one rating in the game, and played key minutes in the closing moments of regulation and overtime. Thompson was held off the scoresheet in his first WHL action.

NEXT UP: The Prince Albert Raiders next home game is on Friday, September 30 when they host the Swift Current Broncos at the Art Hauser Centre. Puck drop is 7:00 PM. Visit Raiderhockey.com or call 764-5348 to get your tickets now!

Lead Up: Pats Lose Home Opener in OT

The Pats outshot the Raiders 45-30 on Friday night but dropped their home opener 4-3 in overtime. Braydon Buziak scored his first career WHL goal with less than five minutes remaining to force overtime but that's when Simon Stransky scored his second of the night to give the Raiders the extra point. Ian Scott made 43 saves in the win for Prince Albert while Tyler Brown stopped 26 directed his way. Chase Harrison led the way with a goal and an assist for the Pats.

Buziaks First!

Pats forward Braydon Buziak was rewarded for a hard working effort on Friday with his first WHL goal on Friday night. It was a big one late in the 3rd period to tie the game at 3 and eventually force overtime. Buziak took a bounce off the end glass and backhanded it top corner short side.

More Firsts

The Pats Filip Ahl made his WHL debut on Friday night and recorded his first career point. Ahl assisted on the Pats game tying goal in the third. Ahl was returned to the Pats from the Ottawa Senators on Tuesday after playing three rookie games over the weekend. Forward Dawson Leedahl also recorded his first point as a Pat on Friday night with a helper on Chase Harrison's powerplay marker in the second period.

Powerplay Strikes Again

The Pats powerplay continued its success from the pre-season on Friday night. Chase Harrison scored in the second period for the clubs 12th powerplay goal in their last nine games including the eight in the pre-season. The Pats went 1 for 3 on the man advantage on Friday.
