

BY THE NUMBERS

THE LAST GAME... The Winterhawks cruised to a win on the island, beating Victoria 5-1 in their first of four meetings this season against the Royals. The Hawks opened the scoring with three first-period goals, including two on the power play from Luca Cagnoni to give Portland a sizeable lead after one period. That was Cagnoni's first career two-goal outing as a Winterhawk. Robbie Fromm-Delorme recorded his second consecutive multigoal game and Aidan Litke tacked on an insurance 5-on-3 power-play goal in the third period to put Portland at 3/6 on the man advantage. Five Winterhawks recorded multiple points in the victory. Jake Poole scored the lone Royals goal on the power play in period three and Tyler Palmer made a season-high 42 saves. Dante Giannuzzi was outstanding in net, making 21 saves on 22 shots en route to his eighth win of the year.

GAME DAY NOTABLES... Portland has scored two or more power play goals during its four-game win streak. The Hawks are an impressive 5-0-1-1 against B.C. Division opponents this season after defeating their third different B.C. Division team (Kamloops, Kelowna, Victoria). Per Andy Kemper, after a four-goal margin of victory Friday night, the Winterhawks now own a career +1002 goal differential in their franchise history.

WESTERN HOCKEY LEAGUE PLAYERS TO WATCH

#13 | JAMES STEFAN

The Laguna Beach, California native has points in 12 of 13 games this season, including points in his last seven contests. Last weekend, Stefan recorded his 100th career point in the WHL and tonight is his 137th game as a Winterhawk. He scored his first power play goal of the season Friday night after leading the team with 15 power play goals a year ago.

#34 | JAKE POOLE

The 20-year-old forward leads the Royals with nine goals in 15 games, just a few shy of his career-high 14 goals he scored in 2021-22. Poole has two hat trick performances this season since October 22 and points in four of his last five games.

NEWS AND NOTES

A START TO REMEMBER... The Winterhawks opened the 2022-23 campaign with a 7-0-0-0 record, their second best start in franchise history. Only the 1982-83 team that went on to win the organization's first Memorial Cup Championship had a better start with a 9-0-0-0 record through late October. Members of that team will be honored during Oregon Hockey History Night on March 18. Eight Winterhawks scored multiple goals during the win streak.

CHL TOP TEN... The Winterhawks were listed sixth on the Week 6 edition of the CHL Top Ten Rankings, up two spots from the previous ranking. The rankings are determined by a group of NHL Executives and four WHL teams were recognized in the most recent list: the Red Deer Rebels (1), Winnipeg ICE (3), Portland Winterhawks (6), and Seattle Thunderbirds (8) all crack the weekly rankings. Saskatoon and Everett were notated as an honorable mention on the list. The Winterhawks have been named on the CHL Top Ten power rankings all seven times.

CENTRAL SCOUTING... Three Portland Winterhawks were listed on NHL Central Scouting's 'Preliminary Players to Watch' List. Winterhawks reigning Rookie of the Year Luca Cagnoni headlines the bunch with a 'B-rating,' projecting him as a potential 2nd- or 3rd-round draft pick. The Burnaby, BC native had eight points through eight games at the time of the list being released, ranking him 12th among WHL defensemen.

Defenseman Carter Sotheran and goaltender Jan Špunar were recognized with 'C ratings,' projecting them at 4th-, 5th-, or 6th-round picks. At the time of the watch list getting announced, Sotheran ranked seventh among rookies with six points. The 6-foot-4, 201-pound defenseman from Sanford, Man. served as an alternate captain for the Pembina Valley Hawks U18 AAA program last season and led his team in scoring with 20 goals and 34 assists for 54 points in 41 games. Špunar once again gets recognized by Central Scouting after being ranked as high as third best European goaltender in 2022. The first-round CHL Import selection won both his starts in the Rose City prior to the list coming out, stopping 59 of 65 shots and owning a 2.10 goals-against-average. Last season, he played for his hometown HC Olomouc U20 team, boasting a 22-8-0-0 record with a 2.57 GAA and .911 save percentage. Špunar has also represented the Czech Republic at the Under-16, Under-17, Under-18 and Under-20 levels of competition, most recently competing at the 2022 Four Nations Tournament and the 2022 Hlinka Gretzky Cup.

CAPTAIN KLASSEN... The Winterhawks announced the club's leadership structure for the 2022-23 season and fourth year Winterhawk Gabe Klassen was named the 48th captain in team history. Fellow forwards Robbie Fromm-Delorme, Jack O'Brien, and Kyle Chyzowski were all named alternate captains. Klassen, 19, joins the likes of former captains Brent Peterson, Adam Deadmarsh, Brenden Morrow, and Paul Gaustad as well as recent captains Tyson Kozak, Clay Hanus, Nick Cicek, Johnny Ludvig, Cody Glass, Keoni Texiera, and Nic Petan. The Prince Albert, Sask. native takes over the captaincy position from Tyson Kozak and Clay Hanus, who are now playing their first year of professional hockey.

ROSTER MOVEMENT... The Winterhawks assigned 19-year-old forward Jonah Bevington to the Whitecourt Wolverines (AJHL) on November 7th. The former fifth round WHL Prospects Draft selection in 2018 recorded three assists in seven games this year. In October, Portland traded 20-year-old defenseman Kurtis Smythe to the Medicine Hat Tigers for an 8th round pick in the 2023 WHL Prospects Draft. The Cloverdale, B.C. native was originally selected in the 2nd round of the 2017 WHL Prospects Draft by the Saskatoon Blazers and was acquired by Portland shortly after. He played in 121 career games in the Rose City, tallying two goals and 29 assists for 31 points. He represented the Hawks as an alternate captain during the 2021-22 season and wore an "A" for the Hawks during preseason this year.

CAN'T STOP CAGNONI... Luca Cagnoni, a top prospect for the 2023 NHL Draft, had a productive preseason, co-leading the Western Hockey League with seven points in four preseason games. He scored three goals and recorded a point in all four preseason games he appeared in. He carried that momentum into the start of the regular season, recording two points over the WHL's opening weekend and scoring his first career game-winning goal in overtime against Kelowna. Cagnoni has recorded a point in five contests this season to lead all Winterhawks defensemen through October. The Burnaby, B.C. native is coming off a 36-point campaign in 63 games and he was named the Winterhawks Rookie of the Year. The Athletic's Scott Wheeler listed Cagnoni 45th on his early season NHL draft rankings after naming Cagnoni on his preseason players to watch rankings.

KILLER KLASSEN... Gabe Klassen is off to an incredible start to the 2022-23 campaign, leading the Winterhawks in goal scoring. He was named the WHL's first Player of the Week for his six goal output over the league opening weekend. He scored four of his six goals against Kelowna, the first Winterhawk to net four since Oliver Bjorkstrand did so in 2015 and the last to accomplish that scoring feat on the road since Ty Rattie did so in Vancouver in 2013. We should note for fun with Klassen tracking for record-setting numbers that ten Winterhawks all-time have surpassed the 60 goal mark in a season, with then 19-year-old Oliver Bjorkstrand being the most recent.

ALSCHER HEADS TO SUNSHINE STATE... After a terrific rookie season that saw 16 points in 61 games with a +20 rating, defenseman Marek Alscher heard his name called by the Florida Panthers in the third round, #93 overall, of the 2022 NHL Draft. The Kladno, Czech Republic native skated with the Panthers at their summer development camp and recently enjoyed his first NHL training camp in the Sunshine State. Alscher was the third-ever Winterhawk selected by the Panthers and he was Florida's first pick overall in the summer's draft. The Hawks have now helped 146 players get drafted, a WHL high, since relocating to Portland in 1976.

LET'S GO CAMPING... Nine Winterhawks who were on the 2021-22 team participated at NHL rookie camps this month - Marek Alscher (Florida), Jaydon Dureau (Tampa Bay), Taylor Gauthier (Pittsburgh), Cross Hanas (Detroit), Clay Hanus (Pittsburgh), Gabe Klassen (Colorado), Tyson Kozak (Buffalo), Ryan McCleary (Pittsburgh), James Stefan (Los Angeles). First-round CHL Import selection Jan Spunar (Edmonton) also attended camp and Marcus Nguyen had the opportunity to skate with the Toronto Maple Leafs at their development camp. Kozak caught plenty of attention at rookie camp, scoring three times in as many nights. Hanas scored twice for Detroit and Stefan netted a goal in his second rookie camp game. In total, 121 WHL athletes eligible to play in the league attended NHL rookie camps.

ALUMNI NIGHTS TO REMEMBER... Some recent Winterhawks are enjoying early season success with their professional teams. Seth Jarvis scored the Carolina Hurricanes' first goal of the season on NHL Opening Night and the Canes were twice ranked first on the NHL's Sweet Sixteen power rankings. Cross Hanas (Detroit) scored his first professional goal with the Grand Rapids Griffins on October 15 and a week later, Tyson Kozak (Buffalo) scored his first pro goal and point with the Rochester Americans in his fourth professional game on October 21. Taylor Gauthier also won his first pro game via shutout in the ECHL behind a 20-save effort with the Wheeling Nailers on October 30.

IRON MEN... Last season, six Winterhawks played in all 68 games to become iron men. The list includes former co-captain Clay Hanus and forwards Gabe Klassen, Jack O'Brien, James Stefan, Kyle Chyzowski, and Marcus Nguyen. The Hawks last had six or more iron men in 2018-19 and previously in 1979-80 with seven Hawks.

*ALL TIMES PST

DECADE OF SUCCESS... Over the last ten years, the Portland Winterhawks have the best road win percentage in the WHL entering the new season, winning 63.9% of games (197-106-10-14). Over that same span, their .676 win percentage is also the highest amongst WHL clubs. In addition, the Winterhawks have done their job of advancing players to the professional ranks in the last decade, seeing 24 players selected in the NHL Draft and four first-round draft picks. Last season, 18 former Winterhawks laced up and played in the NHL.

SUMMER STORYLINES... In addition to the Winterhawks attending NHL camps, it was a busy summer for a lot of Hawks. Here's a few that made storylines.

Josh Mori captured gold with Team Canada at the 2022 Maccabiah Games (referred to as "the Jewish Olympics" as it takes place every four years) in Israel. Mori also won tournament MVP after logging 11 points in five games. He earned the nod to Canada's junior ice hockey delegation with other U18 players from across Canada and was named captain for this summer's tournament. The Richmond, B.C. native led his team to an undefeated 5-0-0 run during the tournament, culminating in a 5-4 overtime victory over Team U.S.A.

Dawson Pasternak won a silver medal with his hometown Winnipeg Grasshoppers at Canada's Under-19 Ball Hockey Nationals. The annual competition featured eight teams competing this year in Winnipeg, Man. and Pasternak was named tournament MVP after potting two goals and two assists in five games. Thanks to his excellent play, he will play for Team Canada at next year's World Championships.

Kyle Chyzowski spent the second half of his summer training at Jan Ludvig's rink in Kamloops, B.C. Jan is the father of former Winterhawk captain Johnny Ludvig and the former NHL'er hosted a handful of hockey players of all ages to prepare for the season. Chyzowski attended Ludvig's camp with Robbie Fromm-Delorme and Kurtis Smythe.

PROSPECT WATCH... Graham Jones, the Winterhawks first-round selection, #18 overall, of the 2022 WHL Prospects Draft, was named to Team Manitoba's Under-16 Team ahead of the 2023 Canada Games held from February 18 to March 5 on Prince Edward Island. Last season, Jones scored 33 goals and 81 points in 30 games with RINK Hockey Academy in Winnipeg. This year, Jones is playing for Shattuck St. Mary's 15U team in Minnesota and has 10 goals and 23 assists through 22 games thus far.

OFFSEASON MOVEMENT... On the trade front, the Winterhawks acquired Diego Buttazzoni from the Medicine Hat Tigers for two conditional picks. Drafted by the Tigers in the second round, #37 overall, of the 2021 WHL Prospects Draft, the 16-year-old ranked second on his Burnaby Winter Club U18 Prep team with 54 points in 32 games. He co-led his team with four goals in five playoff games to help BWC capture a CSHL Championship.

SWEET SIXTEENS... This year's roster features two 16-year-olds in Diego Buttazzoni and Alex Thompson and a young defensive core with seven of the eight defensemen on roster 18 years or younger (the exceptions is Ryan McCleary, 19). Last year, the Winterhawks opted to play without a full-time 16-year-old on their roster, though Josh Zakreski did end up dressing in 11 games as an affiliate player. According to team historian and broadcaster Andy Kemper, only three times in team history has a 16-year-old skater not played full-time in Portland (prior to last year, it was most recently true in 1988-1989)

FAMILY TIES... Forward Kyle Chyzowski comes from a lineage of hockey players. The Chyzowskis have been in the hockey scene for a couple of decades. His father Barry and uncles Dave and Ron Chyzowski all played for the St. Albert Saints of the Alberta Junior Hockey League. All three would go on to have healthy hockey careers and now Kyle, the next of the second generation, is set to join cousins Nick (Kamloops, 2013 - 2018) and Ryan Chyzowski (Medicine Hat, 2016 - 2021) in having an impact on the Western Hockey League. Both of his cousins have worn a letter during their time in the WHL. Kyle was drafted in the 3rd round, 58th overall, by the Winterhawks in the 2019 WHL Bantam Draft.

Defenseman Ryan McCleary also comes from a hockey family. His father Trent won a Memorial Cup in 1989 with the Swift Current Broncos and he played in the Memorial Cup again during the 1992-93 season during his final year in juniors. He went on to play 192 career NHL games with the Ottawa Senators, Boston Bruins and Montreal Canadiens. Ryan's sister Maddy is also playing USports Hockey at St. Mary's University.

OPENING NIGHT HAWKS... Eleven former Winterhawks were named to NHL Opening Night rosters. That leads the U.S. Division and is second-most in the Western Hockey League behind Kelowna (14). A dozen others including former first round NHL Draft picks Dennis Cholowski and Derrick Pouliot were also named on AHL Opening Night rosters.

MILESTONES

Kyle Chyzowski played in his 100th career WHL game on November 4. He has 53 points in 102 games to date. He was selected by Portland in the 3rd round of the 2019 WHL Prospects Draft.

Gabe Klassen scored his 50th career WHL goal on the season opener and reached the 100-point threshold as a Winterhawk on October 29. James Stefan also reached the century mark in points for in his Winterhawks career during the October 29 win.

Fifth-year forward Robbie Fromm-Delorme recorded his 100th career WHL point, all with the Winterhawks, during Portland's 4-2 home opener win against Tri-City. He assisted the game-winning goal and tacked in a power play goal for insurance.

Diego Buttazzoni, Rhett Ravndahl, Aiden Sotas, Carter Sotheran, and Alex Thompson all made their WHL debuts over WHL Opening Week and Jan Špunar secured his first WHL win in his first start on October 1. Buttazzoni recorded his first WHL point (2A) on October 11 against Edmonton and was named second star of the game. Nick Johnson scored his first WHL goal against Kamloops on October 15 and Alex Thompson scored his first goal a week later in Tri-City. Carter Sotheran scored his first career WHL goal in style, netting the game-winner against Kelowna on October 29. Rhett Ravndahl recorded his first career point in the same game as Sotheran.
