GAME #2 VANCOUVER GIANTS AT PRINCE GEORGE COUGARS

HERE WE GO AGAIN – The Vancouver Giants kicked off their 19th season in the Western Hockey League last night against the Prince George Cougars. Over the course of their first 18 seasons, the Vancouver have accumulated one WHL Championship (2006), one Memorial Cup Championship (2007) and have captured six B.C. Division championship banners. The Giants captured the 2019 Western Conference Championship by compiling a record of 48-15-3-2. Michael Dyck’s team advanced to the Rogers WHL Championship series and took their series with the Prince Albert Raiders to overtime in Game 7. Tonight they look for their second straight victory to start the season.

OPPOSITION – The Prince George Cougars are coming off a season where they finished fifth in the B.C. Division and 10th in the Western Conference standings. Their overall record was 19-41-5-3. Last season the Giants finished with an 8-1 record against Prince George and were a perfect 4-0 against them at CN Centre. Bowen Byram led all Giants with 10 points (3G, 7A) in nine meetings with Prince George. Justin Sourdif led all Giants with four goals. Between the pipes, both David Tendeck and Trent Miner secured four victories against the Cougars.

LAST NIGHT AT A GLANCE – Five different Vancouver Giants found the back of the net and Trent Miner turned aside 20 shots to help lead the Giants to a 5-3 road victory against the Prince George Cougars. The power play went two-for-three for Vancouver while they managed to kill six of their seven penalties. Seth Bafaro (1G, 1A) and Owen Hardy (2A) led the way offensively for the Giants with two points each.

GAME #2 VANCOUVER GIANTS AT PRINCE GEORGE COUGARS

DRAFT DAY:

The 2019 NHL Draft in Vancouver was a memorable one for two Vancouver Giants. Both Bowen Byram (D – 2001, Cranbrook, BC) and Trent Miner (G – 2001, Brandon, MB) were selected by the Colorado Avalanche. Bowen Byram was snagged by the Avs with their first-round pick (fourth overall). Byram became the fifth Giant to ever be selected in the first round of the NHL Draft. He and Evander Kane share the honour of being the highest Vancouver Giants ever selected in the NHL Draft. Byram has since signed a three-year entry-level contract with Colorado and remains with the Avalanche to this day.

In Round 7 Colorado once again came calling, this time for goaltender Trent Miner. Miner became the third Giants goaltender ever selected in the NHL Draft joining David Tendeck and Tyson Sexsmith. 2019 marked the first time ever that one NHL team selected two Vancouver Giants in the same draft.

The following Vancouver Giants have been drafted by NHL Teams:

- Bowen Byram (COL – Round 1, 2019 – SIGNED)
- Milos Roman (CGY – Round 4, 2018 – Unsigned)
- David Tendeck (ARZ – Round 6, 2018 – Unsigned)
- Alex Kannok Leipert (WSH – Round 6, 2018 – Unsigned)
- Trent Miner (COL – Round 7, 2019 – Unsigned)

MILESTONE WATCH:

- Jacob Gendron, Justin Lies and John Little suited up in their first career WHL games last night in Prince George.
- Giants defenceman Dylan Plouffe is 66 games shy of reaching 311 games played in a Giants uniform. If he gets there he'd surpass Neil Manning for the all-time games played record for the G-Men. Plouffe also leads all active Vancouver Giants with 101 career WHL points.
- Milos Roman ranks fourth all-time in Import Scoring for the Vancouver Giants. Through 99 games, Milos Roman has scored 37 goals while adding 56 assists for 93 points. The Slovakian-born Calgary Flames prospect needs just two points to surpass Mario Bliznak for third all-time. He has represented Slovakia in each of the past three World Junior championships. Tonight marks Roman's 100th career WHL game.
- Tristen Nielsen is 12 goals shy of 50 for his WHL career.
- Jackson Shepard is 18 games shy of 200 for his WHL career. Last night he made his Giants debut.

ALL EYES ON SOURDIF:

Fresh off a historic rookie season with the Giants, and a Silver Medal in the summer with Hockey Canada, 2002-born forward Justin Sourdif will be a player worth watching in 2019-20. Last season Sourdif scored 23 goals making him just the third 16-year-old Giant to ever surpass 20 goals in a season. In August, Sourdif helped lead Canada to a Silver Medal at the 2019 Hlinka Gretzky Cup. He also represented Canada at the 2018 World Under-17 Challenge. Sourdif has been pegged by many as a top NHL Draft prospect in a stacked 2020 NHL Draft Class. He was originally selected by the Vancouver Giants with the third overall selection in the 2017 WHL Bantam Draft. He was responsible for the WHL's Highlight of the Night last night.
