

GAME NOTES – OCTOBER 12, 2019
GAME #11 VANCOUVER GIANTS AT REGINA PATS

THE STORY SO FAR – The Giants are off to a 5-5 start. The G-Men started the season with back-to-back wins up North against Prince George on September 20th and 21st. Then from September 27th through 29th they went 1-2, having dropped games to both Portland Kamloops before securing a 4-0 win on Sunday, September 29th against Kelowna. So far on their Eastern Swing the Giants are 1-3. They started their road swing in Brandon last Friday night, and fell 3-0 despite peppering the Brandon goal with 40 shots. The next night in Winnipeg, David Tendeck made 36 saves to earn his second straight shutout as the Giants blanked the Winnipeg ICE 4-0. So far this week the Giants are 1-2 having dropped two close games to Prince Albert and Saskatoon before earning a 4-1 victory last night in Moose Jaw. The Giants wrap up their six-game trip tonight in Regina.

OPPOSITION – The Regina Pats are off to a 1-7 start in 2019-20. After an opening night victory at home against Moose Jaw the Pats have since dropped seven straight games. Offensively the Pats are led by 20-year-old Austin Pratt who has scored three goals along with five assists for eight points through eight games. The Giants defeated the Regina Pats 10-4 at home back in November, 2018.

SUPER DAVE – Giants goaltender David Tendeck is one heck of a roll. The Arizona Coyotes prospect brings a 4-1 record into tonight's game with a 1.00 goals-against-average and a .961 save percentage. His two shutouts are tied for tops in the WHL along with Raiders netminder Boston Bilous and Moose Jaw's Bailey Brkin. Tendeck has stopped 122 of the first 127 shots he's faced this season.

GAME NOTES – OCTOBER 12, 2019
GAME #11 VANCOUVER GIANTS AT REGINA PATS

DRAFT DAY:

The 2019 NHL Draft in Vancouver was a memorable one for two Vancouver Giants. Both Bowen Byram (D – 2001, Cranbrook, BC) and Trent Miner (G – 2001, Brandon, MB) were selected by the Colorado Avalanche. Bowen Byram was snaggged by the Avs with their first-round pick (fourth overall). Byram became the fifth Giant to ever be selected in the first round of the NHL Draft. He and Evander Kane share the honour of being the highest Vancouver Giants ever selected in the NHL Draft.

In Round 7 Colorado once again came calling, this time for goaltender Trent Miner. Miner became the third Giants goaltender ever selected in the NHL Draft joining David Tendeck and Tyson Sexsmith. 2019 marked the first time ever that one NHL team selected two Vancouver Giants in the same draft.

The following Vancouver Giants have been drafted by NHL Teams:

- Bowen Byram (COL – Round 1, 2019 – SIGNED)
- Milos Roman (CGY – Round 4, 2018 – Unsigned)
- David Tendeck (ARZ – Round 6, 2018 – Unsigned)
- Alex Kannok Leipert (WSH – Round 6, 2018 – Unsigned)
- Trent Miner (COL – Round 7, 2019 – Unsigned)

MILESTONE WATCH:

- Giants defenceman Dylan Plouffe is 57 games shy of reaching 311 games played in a Giants uniform. If he gets there he'd surpass Neil Manning for the all-time games played record for the G-Men. Plouffe also leads all active Vancouver Giants with 110 career WHL points.
- Milos Roman is third all-time in Import Scoring for the Vancouver Giants. Through 108 games, Milos Roman has scored 42 goals while adding 57 assists for 99 points. The Slovakian-born Calgary Flames prospect surpassed Mario Bliznak for third all-time. He has represented Slovakia in each of the past three World Junior championships. He's one point shy of 100 for his career.

ONE-TIMERS:

On September 27th, the Vancouver Giants officially named 2000-born defenceman Alex Kannok Leipert (Regina, SK) the 17th captain in franchise history. Justin Sourdif has recorded points in eight of his first 10 games to start this season. The Giants have scored at least one power play goal in seven of their first 10 games so far this season. Dylan Plouffe and Tristen Nielsen have both recorded points in each of their past four games.

ALL EYES ON SOURDIF:

Fresh off a historic rookie season with the Giants, and a Silver Medal in the summer with Hockey Canada, 2002-born forward Justin Sourdif will be a player worth watching in 2019-20. Last season Sourdif scored 23 goals making him just the third 16-year-old Giant to ever surpass 20 goals in a season. In August, Sourdif helped lead Canada to a Silver Medal at the 2019 Hlinka Gretzky Cup. Sourdif has been pegged by many as a top NHL Draft prospect in a stacked 2020 NHL Draft Class. He was originally selected by the Vancouver Giants with the third overall selection in the 2017 WHL Bantam Draft. Sourdif has registered six goals and six assists for nine points so far this season. His 12 points lead the team and rank him second in league scoring.
